1. About This Policy

- 1.1 This policy explains when and why we collect personal information about our members, instructors and visitors, how we use it and how we keep it secure and your rights in relation to it.
- 1.2 We may collect, use and store your personal data, as described in this Data Privacy Policy and as described when we collect data from you.
- 1.3 We reserve the right to amend this Data Privacy Policy from time to time without prior notice. You are advised to check our website www.camsailingclub.org.uk/ regularly for any amendments (but amendments will not be made retrospectively).
- 1.4 We will always comply with the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR), the Data Protection Act 2018 (DPA), the Data (Use and Access) Act 2025 (DUAA), the Privacy and Electronic Communications Regulations 2003 (PECR) and any other legislation to which we are subject, when dealing with your personal data. Further details on the UK GDPR can be found at the website for the Information Commissioner (www.ico.gov.uk). For the purposes of the UK GDPR, we will be the “controller” of all personal data we hold about you.

4. How We Protect Your Personal Data

- 4.1 We will not transfer your personal data outside the UK without your consent
- 4.2 We have implemented generally accepted standards of technology and operational security in order to protect personal data from loss, misuse, or unauthorised alteration or destruction.
- 4.3 Please note however that where you are transmitting information to us over the internet this can never be guaranteed to be 100% secure.
- 4.4 For any payments which we take from you online we will use a recognised online secure payment system.
- 4.5 We will notify you promptly in the event of any breach of your personal data which might expose you to serious risk.

5. Who Else Has Access to the Information You Provide Us?

- 5.1 We will never sell your personal data. We will not share your personal data with any third parties without your prior consent (which you are free to withhold) except where we are required to do so by law or as set out in the table above or in paragraphs 5.2, 5.3 and 5.4 below.
- 5.2 We may pass your personal data to third parties who are service providers, agents and subcontractors to us for the purposes of completing tasks and providing services to you on our behalf (e.g. to print newsletters and send you mailings). We do this for the purpose of our legitimate interests in operating the Club and for performing our contract with you. However, we disclose only the personal data that is necessary for the third party to deliver the service and we have a contract in place that requires them to keep your information secure and not to use it for their own purposes. It is possible that third parties may themselves engage others (sub-processors) to process your data. Where this is the case third parties will be required to have contractual arrangements with their sub-processor(s) that ensure your information is kept secure and not used for their own purposes.

- 5.3 We may also pass your personal data to the RYA for the purposes of carrying out surveys when it is in the legitimate interest of the club and the RYA to do so. The RYA may use third parties to carry out the surveys but disclose only the personal data that is necessary for the third party to do so and will have a contract in place that require the third party to keep your information secure and not to use it for their own purposes.
- 5.4 We have agreed a block licence agreement with the Cam Conservators to cover all sailing dinghies without auxiliary engines. To comply with this agreement, you will be required to display a licence number (provided to you by the club) on both sides of your hull. In the event of an incident on the water we will be required to pass your name and contact details over to the Cam Conservators. Your data will only be passed over if requested in writing by them, detailing the nature of the incident and their justification for requiring your details. You will be informed in writing by the Secretary if your details have been passed over to the Cam Conservators.

6. How Long Do We Keep Your Information?

- 6.1 We will hold your personal data on our systems for as long as you are a member of the Club and for as long afterwards as it is in the Clubs' legitimate interest to do so or for as long as is necessary to comply with our legal obligations. We will review your personal data every year to establish whether we are still entitled to process it. If we decide that we are not entitled to do so, we will stop processing your personal data except that we will retain your personal data in an archived form in order to be able to comply with future legal obligations e.g. compliance with tax requirements and exemptions, and the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.
- 6.2 We will hold all data collected on visitors for only as long as it is in the Clubs' legitimate interest to so or for as long as is necessary to comply with our legal obligations. We will review all data collected on visitors regularly (and at least annually) to establish whether we are still entitled to process it. If we decide that we are not entitled to do so, we will stop processing your personal data except that we will retain your personal data in an archived form in order to be able to comply with future legal obligations e.g. compliance with tax requirements and exemptions, and the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.

- 6.3 We securely destroy all financial information once we have used it and no longer need it.

7. Your Rights Explained

- 7.1 It is important that you understand what rights you have in respect of the Personal Data and Special Category Personal Data that we hold about you. To let us know that you wish us to exercise any of your rights outlined below please email secretary@camsailingclub.org.uk or write to FAO: Hon Secretary, Cam Sailing Club, Clayhithe Road, Waterbeach, CB25 9HZ

(a) The right to be informed (knowing how we will use your data).

You have the right to be told how we will use your Personal Data – which is set out in This Notice.

(b) The right of access (being provided with copies of your data).

You have the right to ask us to provide you with a copy of your Personal Data. We will supply any information you ask for as soon as possible but may take up to 1 month once we are satisfied as to your identity. We will not charge you for this. This is called a data subject access request.

(c) The right to rectification (changing incorrect information we hold).

If you believe our records are inaccurate you have the right to ask for those records concerning you to be updated. Contact details for any requests can be found above.

(d) The right to be forgotten (erasure) (requesting deletion of your Personal Data).

In some cases, you have the right to be forgotten (i.e. to have your Personal Data deleted from our database).

(e) The right to restrict processing (limiting how we use your data).

In certain situations, you have the right to ask for processing of your Personal Data to be restricted because there is some disagreement about its accuracy or legitimate usage.

(f) The right to data portability (moving your data in a useable format).

You have the right to request the Personal Data you provided to us, in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and/or transmit that data to a third party - in certain situations.

(g) The right to object (when we must stop processing your data).

You have the right to object to us processing data purely for our legitimate interests. If you make such a request, we must stop processing your Personal Data unless: we can demonstrate compelling legitimate grounds for the processing, which override your interests, rights and freedoms; or the processing is for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.

(h) The right not to be subject to automated decision-making including profiling (making a decision solely by automated means without any human involvement).

The right not to be subject to a decision based solely on automated processing (including profiling) that produces legal effects concerning you or similarly significantly affects you. Cam Sailing Club does not undertake automated decision making or profiling.

7.2 If you have any complaints about the way we process your personal data, these will be handled in line with our Personal Data Complaints Procedure. Please see section 8. Complaints.

7.3 For further information on each of those rights, including the circumstances in which they apply, please see the Guidance from the UK Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) on individuals' rights under the General Data Protection Regulation.

8. Complaints

Any complaints about the way your personal data is handled, processed or stored by the Cam Sailing Club, will be managed in accordance with UK data protection legislation.

The Club will:

- Acknowledge your complaint within 30 days
- Investigate and respond without undue delay, keeping you informed throughout
- Aim to resolve your complaint within 3 months, unless exceptional circumstances apply

If you are not satisfied with the way the Club has handled your data protection complaint, you may escalate it to the Information Commissioners Office (ICO)
